BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICY

INSTRUCTION

Reporting Test Results

The Superintendent shall report to the Board of Education scores on State mandated tests for each school and for the school system as a whole.

Scores for Prince George's County Public Schools on all State mandated tests must be reported to the school, community, and the general public in a timely manner.

Students' scores on county and State mandated tests that are administered as part of Prince George's County Public Schools' system-wide testing program must be communicated to the students' parents or guardians in a timely manner.
