

News Release: Suitland High School Performs UNBROKEN

November 23, 2015

For Immediate Release

CONTACT:

Office of Communications

301-952-6001

communications@pgcps.org (<mailto:communications@pgcps.org>)

UPPER MARLBORO, MD – Suitland High School Center for the Visual and Performing Arts Theatre Department and Jazz Band will host its winter production, UNBROKEN. The play kicks off on Thursday, December 3 and Friday, December 4 at 7:00 p.m. in the Annabelle Ferguson Auditorium, located at 5200 Silver Hill Road, Forestville, MD 20747. A matinee performance is also scheduled for Friday, December 4 at 10:00 a.m.

Haunted by memories and fueled by disjointed clues left behind by her late mother, UNBROKEN is the story of a young woman who travels to Harlem's Savoy Ballroom in 1936 in search of the father she thinks she knows.

Tickets for the evening performances are $10 for adults and $8 for students with identification. Discounted tickets are available for the matinee show for schools and senior care centers. Matinee tickets are $5.

For more information about the upcoming performances, please contact LaShawnte' Clay at l.hollomanclay@pgcps.org (<mailto:l.hollomanclay@pgcps.org>).

-30-

Prince George's County Public Schools (PGCPS), one of the nation's 20th largest school districts, has 201 schools and centers, more than 133,000 students and nearly 20,000 employees. The school system serves a diverse student population from urban, suburban and rural communities located in the Washington, DC suburbs. PGCPS is nationally recognized for college and career-readiness programs that provide students with unique learning opportunities, including dual enrollment and language immersion.