Prince George's County Public Schools (PGCPS) will not participate this year in Take Your Child to Work Day (Thursday, April 27) due to the PARCC testing window. Students missing school for this purpose will have their absence excused. Students should not plan to be absent if the PARCC assessment will be administered that day in their school. Please contact your school's administrator for a schedule of your schools' PARCC administration.

Prince George's County Public Schools (PGCPS), one of the nation's 20th largest school districts, has 201 schools and centers, more than 133,000 students and nearly 20,000 employees. The school system serves a diverse student population from urban, suburban and rural communities located in the Washington, DC suburbs. PGCPS is nationally recognized for college and career-readiness programs that provide students with unique learning opportunities, including dual enrollment and language immersion.
